What is an Executive MBA?

An executive MBA or an EMBA is a specialised professional degree for working professionals who are currently working in some managerial capacity and wish to upskill themselves for C-suite and senior managerial job roles. The course duration of an executive MBA is shorter—usually between 12 months to 18 months, and with the mainstreaming of online learning technologies, is now being offered in the fully online learning mode as well. This is a professional course oriented to meet the skill-needs of the industry and train current managers to escalate smoothly in their careers. To prevent any disruptions to professionals' jobs, the course is designed in part-time or fully online mode to allow self-paced learning alongside one's professional commitments.

About College Vidya

Modes of MBA

Being one of the most demanded and scopeful programs, MBA is offered in many modes of education, some of which are mentioned below:

▶ Executive MBA

1 Year MBA ◀

▶ Global MBA

Part-time MBA ◀

▶ Distance MBA

Regular MBA ◀

▶ Online MBA

Online MBA

Online MBA is one of the newest and most trending choices amongst management aspirants. Naturally, it tops the menu of many universities and institutes across the globe. Online MBA is a PG degree in business administration of 2 years where one learns about essential business skills and management foundations through the fully online mode. Online MBA is one of the most sought courses by working professionals, students, and entrepreneurs. An online MBA brings together the flexibility of online learning and the comprehensiveness of a regular MBA to create a convenient but thorough learning experience.

Distance MBA

A distance MBA was one of the most preferred modes of education by professionals, and a segment of students who wished to pursue the course with time flexibility back when new modes were not introduced. A distance MBA requires the student to visit the institute for specific events like examinations, assignment submissions, collection of learning materials etc. It allows individuals to pursue the course from anywhere with flexibility.

Global MBA

A global MBA is a futuristic online MBA program available in a duration of 1-2 years that is more specifically focused on international management and business practices. This course is the most suitable option to consider for candidates who are interested in developing an international managerial career or want to relocate overseas for their professional pursuits.

1-Year MBA

A 1-Year MBA is an intense learning experience with the learning activities packed into a period of 10-12-month time frame. The past decade has witnessed the growing relevance of a 1-Year MBA for individuals who are fast-paced, have a strong quantitative background or wish to complete the course while working. Candidates with professional experience in a relevant industry are in a good place to opt for a 1-year MBA. The 1-Year MBA program is specifically designed for individuals to gain a comprehensive learning experience in a short period of time to enhance their management proficiency.

Part-Time MBA

A part-time MBA is a program that can be done in parallel with your job or other regular course by attending classes on weekends or evenings. It is a 2-year postgraduate program that covers all management concepts similar to other modes of MBA but with classes slotted in the evenings and on holidays, weekends etc. A part-time MBA course is suited for candidates from any stream of education. A part-time MBA saves a lot of time by adding on a master's degree in your credentials without a break in professional engagements.

Executive MBA

An Executive MBA, also known as EMBA, is a 15–18-months PG degree course which includes core subjects and topics to build managerial and leadership skills in already experienced individuals. This course is specifically designed for professionals in the middle and later stages of their career trajectory looking to escalate to senior managerial and CXO positions. This course entails extensive career escalation, making candidates eligible for top leadership positions as well.

Regular MBA

A regular or full-time MBA program requires candidates to attend 2 academic years of full-time coursework in the offline mode. It follows the conventional model of classroom learning with a fixed schedule, pairing up comprehensive theoretical concepts with relevant practical. This mode of MBA is often found to be very hectic by candidates, especially professionals owing to the strict deadlines of academic workload. It is best suited for individuals who are willing to devote their complete time to it. Regular MBA is also one of the costliest MBAs to exist.

Why Pursue an Online Executive MBA?

Top 5 Reasons to Consider

Being one of the most demanded and scopeful programs, MBA is offered in many modes of education, some of which are mentioned below:

1. Equal Value as an Online Executive MBA

The UGC-DEB in India having granted an equal status to an Online Executive MBA as a regular MBA program, pursuing an Online Executive MBA has become even more appealing– it brings together the flexibility of learning of an online course with the comprehensiveness of an MBA course.

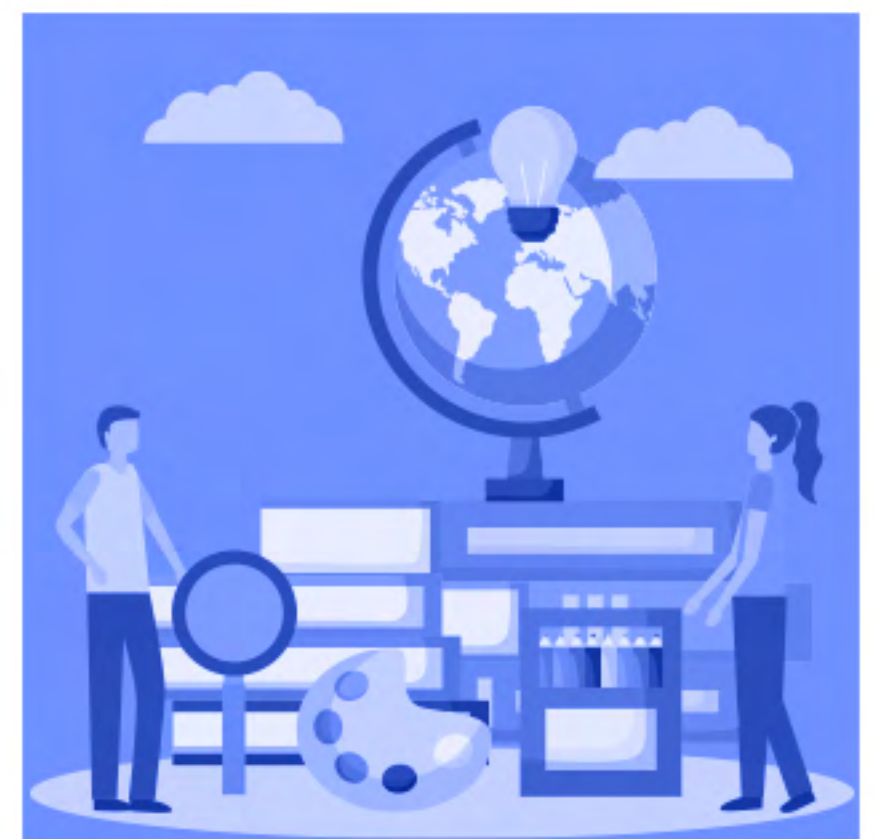

2. Cost-Effective than Other MBA Programs

When it comes to budget and financial constraints, an Online Executive MBA is much friendlier on your pocket than other modes of MBA, especially the regular mode. With fees ranging between INR 1-3 lakhs on an average, it democratizes access to managerial studies beyond those who can afford hefty financial investments into the course.

3. Learning at Par with Global Standards

An Online Executive MBA seamlessly integrates the theoretical foundations of management with the prowess of practical skill-building through simulations. This makes a strong case for higher education at par with international standards as learning is two-pronged, both theoretically and practically-oriented.

4. Flexibility of Learning

The flexibility of learning makes an Online Executive MBA one of the strongest contenders among other MBA modes. Be it the opportunity to access the course lectures and study materials from any location at any time, the chance for self-paced learning or the lack of rigid schedules and deadlines, an Online Executive MBA has come up as one of the most viable management degrees.

5. Exclusive & Dedicated Placement Assistance

One of the lucrative aspects of taking up an Online Executive MBA include its all-round placement assistance. With dedicated mentors, professional grooming services and placement drives, an Online Executive MBA brings a host of appealing job opportunities to the disposal of students during course completion itself.

6. Scope for Career

Lastly, the enhancement impact of an MBA career prospects of candidates are incontestable. With the flexibility to work alongside the degree, an Online Executive MBA helps build a strong resume allowing for growth and career development, garnering further meaningful opportunities for professional exploration.

Executive MBA V/S Regular MBA

Executive MBA

- An executive MBA is a postgraduate professional degree of management designed specially for managers and professionals with work experience.
- The minimum eligibility for this course is having a valid Bachelor's degree from a recognised university along with at least 2 to 5 years of professional experience.
- It is ideal for professionals in the middle of their career journeys and having some managerial work experience, such as mid-level managers or CXO-job aspirants.
- The duration of this course is between 12 months to 18 months.
- The classes and course structure is designed to allow working professionals to pursue the course while continuing their professional pursuits. The classes are scheduled in the evenings, in the online mode or on weekends and holidays.

Regular MBA

- A regular MBA is a professional management degree designed to provide foundational knowledge about management principles.
- The minimum eligibility for taking up this course is a valid Bachelor's degree from a recognised institution. Work experience may be preferred but not mandatory.
- This course is ideal for both working professionals looking to switch careers to management or freshers looking for formal training in management.
- The duration of this course is 2 years.
- The classes for this course are scheduled mostly in the day-time over the week (except in case of online or distance MBA) as per a full-time degree's criteria.

Online Executive MBA Specializations

While a majority of the specializations of an online executive MBA program are similar to the two-year MBA, the specializations of this course are more professionally and practically-oriented. Listed here are a few of the major specializations available to pursue in an online executive MBA.

It is to be noted that the above-listed specialisations are currently offered in India in the online learning mode for an executive MBA course. The offered specialisations may change over years and vary from one institution to another.*

College Vidya's Seal of Trust: How We Make a Difference

College Vidya

1. Only Accredited Institutions Listed: We only list institutes and online courses that are approved by the UGC-DEB for the current academic year to offer online courses. You can select any online course from the CV website with full trust about its credibility.

2. Unbiased Counselling for YOUR Needs & Goals: CV counsellors ensure that they are unbiased in their academic and career counselling and only offer solutions and course suggestions best-suited for your unique goals and academic aspirations.

3. Continuous Support throughout Degree: Our dedicated mentors and the post-admission student services ensure that we are supporting your every step of the way to complete your degree seamlessly.

Other Online Learning Platforms

1. No Guarantee of Accredited University Listings: College Vidya's brand of seal may not be mirrored by other online learning platforms. Many online learning websites can provide misinformation, list unaccredited or even fake universities on their platform.credibility.

2. University-Affiliate Counselling: A large number of other online learning platforms may be affiliate representatives of universities, often making their counselling biased and partial in favour of institutions which may be unsuited to your academic needs.

3. Admission-Focused Support: Often, other online learning platforms are only concerned about your enrollment into a university through them, post which there isn't much support you can rely on them for.

4. All Our Student Services are Free!

Except for video counselling services, we do not charge any fee for our other services from our students or interested candidates. We never call students asking for any service charges, nor are course enrollment fees paid through our website. All payments students make are through the official portals of universities to which we guide students.

4. Hefty Charges for Student Services:

For most of the current online learning and academic counselling services, the basic services are provided by charging fee from students. The further services, including post-admission services are usually heavily charged.

5. Wide Variety of Course Choices

Choices: Having access to the course of one's choice is extremely crucial for fulfilling one's career aspirations. Identifying the diverse interests and areas in which to upskill, we ensure a vast variety of course choices in areas ranging from humanities and social sciences to data analytics, business management, commerce or BFSI-related courses.

5. Limited Number of Course Choices

Choices: With other online learning platforms, the course options and institute options available to you are often limited because of university affiliations. Thus, you can only select a course for higher education from a limited number of university choices irrespective of how they align with your goals.
