PROLOGUE

The University of Calicut, established in 1968, is the largest university in the state of Kerala with 395 affiliated colleges and 34 teaching & research departments spread across several districts. Being ranked among the top educational institutions in the country, it focuses on global standards and delivery of excellence in academics to the deprived sections of the society in its jurisdiction.

Established as " Institute of Correspondence and Continuing Education" under the University of Calicut in the year 1981, the School of Distance Education has now become the hope and enlightenment for the hundreds of thousands of aspirants across the country. It has competent team of teaching and non-teaching staff to be proud of, in addition to a well equipped library of its own. Around 50,000 students register for various under graduate and post graduate programmes under the School of Distance Education every year. It is committed to reach into the unreach and fulfill the dreams of deprived sections of society in pursuit of academic excellence. The aspirations of the stakeholders are always treasured in this temple of learning.
